

T I M E L I N E

2001-2002 Incubation

Chuck Matthews and daughter Kathryn Shelley arrive in Midland

Founding board of directors recruited with Nancy Anguish Founding Board President

Manor Park, Midland Memorial Foundation, Scarborough-Linebery Foundation step up to help.

2003-2006 Start Up

2003 - Kathryn Shelley, Beth Crawford, Shun Kelley and Nancy Anguish at the Aphasia Institute

- 2004 - First Introductory Course with 22 people

Chocolate Decadence fundraiser volunteers

- 2005 - Moved to campus of Community and Sr. Services (now Senior Life)

2006 - Cece Brune, Chocolate Decadence Mastermind & Chairperson

- 2006 - CC Matthews Endowment established

2007-2011 Adolescent

2009 - Excellence in Program Innovation Beacon Award under leadership of Beth Crawford

2010 - Kitty Binek (R) becomes new Executive Director

2009 - $1.8 million Capital Campaign and Building Endowment begins with co-chairs Suzy Boldrick, Betty Sumner, and Nancy Anguish

July 2011 - First month back in permanent home

For a more detailed look at our history, scan the QR code.

2013-2023 Maturity & Paying It Forward

2013 - E.D. Kitty Binek hosted aphasia leaders to create Aphasia Access, a North American association to promote the LPAA

- 2018 - The James A. "Buddy" Davidson Healthcare Fund added

- 2020 - Nancy Rodman Anguish Legacy Fund added

Sponsorships & presentations to Tech Health Sciences Center medical students and Permian Basin area nursing students

2000+ Aphasia Survivors Served!